PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6, '69.

To the Senate and House of Representatives.

OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

I have always felt that the most intimate relations should be cultivated between the Republic of the United States and all independent nations on this continent. It may be well worth considering whether new treaties between us and them may not be profitably entered into to secure intimate relations, friendly, commercial and otherwise.

The subject of an inter-oceanic canal to connect the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, through the Isthmus of Darien is one in which commerce is greatly interested. Instructions have been given to our minister to the Republic of the United States of Columbia to endeavor to obtain authority for a survey by this Government, in order to determine the practicability of such an undertaking, and a charter for the right of way to build by private enterprise such a work if the survey proves it to be practicable.

In order to comply with the agreement of the United States as to a mixed commission at Lima, for the adjustment of claims, it became necessary to send a Commissioner to Lima in August last. No appropriation having been made by Congress for this purpose it is now asked that one be made covering the past and future expenses of the commission.

The good offices of the United States to bring about a peace between Spain and the South American republics, with which she is at war having been accepted by Spain, Peru and Chili, a Congress has been invited to be held in Washington during the present winter.

A grant has been given to Europeans of an exclusive right of transit over the territory of Nicaragua, to which Costa Rica has given its assent, which it is alleged, conflicts with vested rights of citizens of the United States. The Secretary of State has now the subject under consideration.

The Minister of Peru having made representations that there was a state of war between Peru and Spain, and that Spain was constructing in and near New York thirty gunboats, which might be used by Spain in such a way as to relieve the naval force at Cuba, so as to operate against Peru, orders were given to prevent their departure. No further steps having been taken by the representative of the Peruvian Government to prevent the departure of these vessels and I not feeling authorized to detain the property of a nation with which we are at peace on a mere executive order, the matter has been referred to the courts to decide.

The conduct of the war between the allies and Republic of Paraguay has made the intercourse with that country so difficult that it has been deemed advisable to withdraw our representative from the country.

THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN.

Towards the close of the last administration, a convention was signed at London for the settlement of all outstanding claims between Great Britain and the United States which failed to receive the advice and consent of the Senate to its ratification. The time and the circumstances attending the negotiation of the treaty were favorable to its acceptance by the people of the United States, and its provisions were wholly inadequate for the settlement of the grave wrongs that had been sustained by this Government, as well as by the citizens. The injuries resulting to the United States by reason of the course adopted by Great Britain during our late civil war, increased rates of insurance, in the diminution of exports and imports, and other obstructions to domestic industry and productions, in its effect upon the foreign commerce of the country, in the decrease and transfer to Great Britain of our commercial marine, in the prolongation of the war and increased cost both in treasure and in lives in its suppression, could not be adjusted and satisfied, as ordinary commercial claims which continually arise between commercial nations, and yet the convention located them simply as such ordinary claims, from which they differ more widely in the gravity of their character than in the magnitude of their amount. Great even as is that difference, not a word was found in the treaty, and not an inference could be drawn from it to remove the sense of unfriendliness of the course of Great Britain in our struggle for existence, which had so deeply and universally impressed itself upon the people of the country. Believing that a conviction thus misconceived in its scope and inadequate in its provisions, would not have produced the hearty, cordial settlement of pending questions, which alone is consistent with the relations which I desire to have established between the United States and Great Britain, I regarded the action of the Senate in the rejection of the treaty to have been wisely taken in the interest of peace, and as a necessary step in the direction of a perfect and cordial friendship between the two countries. A sensitive people, conscious of their power, are more at ease under a great wrong, wholly unatoned, than under the restraint of a settlement which satisfies neither their ideas of justice, nor their grave sense of the grievances they have sustained. The rejection of the treaty was followed by a state of public feeling on both sides, which I thought not favorable to an attempt at renewed negotiations. I, accordingly, so instructed the Minister of the United States to Great Britain, and found that my views in this regard were shared by Her Majesty's ministers. I hope that the time may soon arrive when the two countries can approach the solution of this momentous question with an assurance of what is due to the rights, dignity and honor of each, and with the determination not only to remove the causes of complaint in the past, but to lay the foundation of a broad principle of public law which will prevent future difference, and tend to firm and continued peace and friendship. This is now the only grave question which the United States have with any foreign nation.

RECIPROCITY.

The question of the treaty for reciprocity between the United States and the British Provinces on this continent has not been favorably considered by the administration. The advantage of such a treaty would be wholly in favor of the British producer, except, possibly, a few engaged in the trade between the two sections. No citizen of the United States would be benefitted by reciprocity. Our internal taxation would prove a protection to the British producer almost equal to the protection which our manufacturers now receive from the tariff. Some arrangement, however, for the regulation of commercial intercourse between the United States and the Dominion of Canada may be desirable.

The Commission for adjusting the claims of the Hudson Bay and Puget's Sound Agricultural Company upon the United States has terminated its labors. The award of six hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been made, and all titles of the Company in the territory of the United States have been extinguished. Deeds for the property of the Company have been received. An appropriation by Congress to meet this sum is asked.

THE NORTHWESTERN LAND BOUNDARY.

The Commissioners for determining the northwestern land boundary between the United States and the British possessions under the treaty of 1856 have completed their labors, and the commission has been dissolved.

In conformity with the recommendation of Congress, a proposition was early made to the British Government to abolish the mixed courts created under the treaty of April 7, 1862, for the suppression of slave trade, and the subject is still under negotiation.

It having come to my knowledge that a corporate company, organized under British laws, proposed to land upon the shores of the United States, and to operate there a submarine cable under a concession from his Majesty, the Emperor of the French, of an exclusive right for twenty years of telegraphic communication between the shores of France and the United States, with the very objectionable feature of subjecting all messages conveyed thereby to the sovereignty and the control of the French Government. I caused the French and British Legations at Washington to be made acquainted with the probable policy of Congress on the subject, as foreshadowed by the bill which passed the Senate in March last. This drew from the representatives of the company an agreement to accept, as the basis of their operations, the provisions of the bill, or of such other enactment on the subject as might be passed during the approaching session of Congress; also, to use their influence to secure from the French Government a modification of their concession, so as to permit the landing upon French soil of any cable belonging to any company incorporated by the authority of the United States, or of any State in the Union, and on their part not to oppose the establishment of any such cable. In consideration of this agreement. I directed the withdrawal of all opposition by the United States authorities to the landing of the cable, and to the working of it, until the meeting of Congress. I regret to say that there has been no modification made in the company's concession, nor so far as I can learn, have they attempted to secure one.—Their concessions exclude the capital and the citizens of the United States from competition upon the shores of France. I recommend legislation to protect the rights of citizens of the United States, as well as the dignity and sovereignty of the nation against such an assumption. I shall also endeavor to secure by negotiation an abandonment of the principle of monopolies in ocean telegraph cables. Copies of this correspondence are herewith furnished.

FRAUDS OF FOREIGNERS.

The unsettled political condition of other countries less fortunate than our own sometimes induces their citizens to come to the United States for the sole purpose of becoming naturalized. Having required citizenship they return to their native country and reside there without disclosing their change of allegiance. They except official positions of trust or honor which can only be held by citizens of their native land. They journey under passports describing them as such citizens, and it is only when civil discord, after perhaps years of quiet, threatens them or threatens their persons or their property, or when their native State drafts them into its military service, that the fact of their change of allegiance is made known. They reside permanently from the United States, they contribute nothing to its revenues, they avoid the duties of its citizenship, and they only make themselves known by a claim of protection. I have directed diplomatic and consular officers of the United States to scrutinize carefully all such claims of protection. The citizens of the United States whether, native or adopted, who discharges his duty to his country, is entitled to its complete protection. While I have a voice in the direction of affairs, I shall not consent to impair the sacred right by conferring it upon fictitious or fraudulent claimants.

PROTECTION TO EMIGRANTS.

On the accession of the present administration it was found that the Minister for North Germany had many propositions for negotiation of a convention for the protection of emigrant passengers, to which no response had been given. It was concluded that to be effectual all the maratime powers engaged in the trade should join in such a measure. Invitations have been extended to the Cabinets of London, Paris, Florence, Berlin, Brussels, Hague, Copenhagan and Stockholm to overpower their representativs at Washington to simultaneously enter into negotiation, and to conclude with the United States conventions identical in form, making uniform regulations as to the construction of the paris of vessels to be devoted to the use of emigrant passengers, as to the quality and quantity of food, as to the medical treatment of the sick, to the rules to be observed during the voyage in order to secure ventilation, to promote health, to prevent intrusion, and to protect the females, and providing for the establishment of tribunals in the several countries for enforcing such regulations by summary process.

Your attention is respectfully called to the law regulating the tariff on Prussian hemp, and to the question whether to fix the charges on Russian hemp higher than they are fixed upon manilla, is not a violation of our treaty with Russia, placing her products upon the same footing with those of the most favored nations.

HOME MANUFACTURES.

Our manufactures are increasing with wonderful rapidity, under the encouragement which they now receive with the improvements in machinery already effected, and still increasing, machinery to take the place of skilled labor to a large extent, our imports of many articles must fall off largely within a very few years. Fortunately, too, many manufactures are not confined to a few localities as formerly, and it is to be hoped they will become more and more diffused, making the interest in them equal in all sections. They give employment and support to hundreds of thousands of people at home, and retain with us the means which otherwise would be shipped abroad. The extension of railroads in Europe and the east is bringing into competition with our agricultural products like products of other countries.—Self interest, if not self preservation, therefore, dictates caution against disturbing any industrial interest of the country. It teaches us, also, the necessity of looking to other markets for the sale of our supplies.

OUR RELATIONS WITH CHINA, &C.

Our neighbors South of the United States and China and Japan should receive our special attention. It will be the endeavor of the administration to cultivate such relations with all these nations as to entitle us to their confidence, and make it their interest, as well as ours, to establish better commercial relations. Through the agency of a more enlightened policy than that heretofore pursued towards China, largely due to the sagacity and efforts of one of our own distinguished citizens, the world is about to commence largely increased relations with that populous and hitherto exclusive nation. As the United States have taken the initiatory in the new path, so they should be the most earnest in showing their good faith in making it a success. In this connection I advise such legislation as will forever preclude the enslavement of the Chinese upon our soil under the name of coolies, and also prevent American vessels from engaging in the transportation of coolies to any country tolerating the system. I also recommend that the mission to China be raised to one of the first class.

THREE ESSENTIALS.

On my assuming the responsibility of Chief Magistrate of the United States it was with the conviction that three things were essential to its peace, prosperity and fullest development. First among these is strict integrity in fulfilling our obligations. Second, to secure protection to the person and property of the citizens of our common country wherever he may choose to move without reference to original nationality, religion, color or policies, demanding of him only obedience to the claims and proper respect for the rights of others. Third, union of all the States, with equal rights indistructible by any constitutional means. To secure the first of these, Congress has taken two essential steps.—First, in declaring by joint resolution that the public debt should be paid, principal and interest in coin; second, by providing the means for paying it.—To secure the defeat desired, with a proper administration of the laws for collection of the revenues, and economical disbursement of them to this object, the administration has most earnestly addressed itself with good results, and I believe satisfactory to the country.—There has been no hesitation in changing officials in order to secure efficient execution of the laws, and sometimes, too, where, in a mere party view, undesirable political results were likely to follow, for any hesitation in sustaining efficient officials against remonstrances wholly political. It may be well to mention here the embarrassment possible to arise from leaving on the statute books the so-called tenure-of-office act, and to earnestly recommend its total repeal.—It could not have been the intention of the framers of the Constitution when providing that appointments made by the President should receive the consent of the Senate, that the latter should have the power to retain in office, persons placed there by Federal appointments against the will of the President. The law is inconsistent with a faithful and efficient administration of the government. What faith can the Executive put in officials forced upon him, and these, too, whom he has suspended for reason?—How will such officials be likely to serve an administration which they know does not trust them? For the second requisite to growth and prosperity, time and a firm but humane administration of existing laws, amended from time to time as they may prove ineffective, or prove harsh and unnecessary, are probably all that are required. The third cannot be attained by special legislation, but must be regarded as fixed by the Constitution itself, and gradually acquiesced in by force of public opinion.

THE NEW INDIAN POLICY.

From the foundation of the Government to the present, the management of the original inhabitants of this continent, the Indians, have been a subject of embarrassment and expense, and has been attended with continuous robberies, murders and wars. From my own experience upon the frontiers and Indian countries, I do not hold either legislation or the conduct of the whites who come most in contact with Indians blameless for these hostilities. The past, however, cannot be undone, and the question must be met as we now find it. I have attempted a new policy towards these wards of the nation—they cannot be regarded in any other light than as wards—with fair results, so far as tried, and which I hope will be attended ultimately with great success. The Society of "Friends" is well known as having succeeded in living in peace with the Indians in the early settlement of Pennsylvania, while their white neighbors of other sects in other sections were constantly imbroiled. They are also known for their opposition to all strife, violence and war, and are generally noted for their strict integrity and fair dealing.—These considerations induced me to give the management of a few reservations of Indians to them, and to throw the burden of agents upon the Society itself.—The result has proved most satisfactory. It will be found more fully set forth in the report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. For Superintendents and Indian Agents, not on reservations, officers of the army were selected. The reasons for this are numerous. When Indian agents are sent there, or near there, troops must be sent also. The agent and the commander of troops are independent of each other, and are subject to orders from different departments of the Government. The army officer holds a position for life; the agent one at the will of the President. The former is personally interested in living in harmony with the Indians, and in the establishment of a permanent peace, to the end that some portion of his life may be spent within the limits of civilization.—The latter has no such personal interest. Another reason is an economic one, and still another, the hold which the Government has upon a life officer to secure a faithful discharge of his duties in carrying out a given policy. The building of railroads, and the access thereby given to all the agricultural and mineral regions of their country, is rapidly bringing civilized settlements into contact with all the tribes of Indians. No matter what ought to be the relations between such settlements and the aborigines, the fact is, they do not harmonize well, and one or the other has to give way in the end.

A system which looks to the extermination of the race is too horrible for a nation to adopt, without entailing upon itself the wrath of all Christendom, and engendering in the citizen a disregard for human life, and the rights of others, dangerous to society. I see no substitute for such a system, except in placing all the Indians on large reservations as rapidly as can be done, and giving them absolute protection there. As soon as they are fitted for it, they should be induced to take their lands and to set up territorial governments for their own protection. For full details on this subject I call your special attention to the reports of the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

ARMY EXPENSES.

The report of the Secretary of War shows the expenditures of the War Department for the year ending the 30th of June, 1869, to be $80,644,042, or which $23,882,310 was disbursed in payment of a debt contracted during the war, and is not chargeable to current army expenses. The estimate of $34,531,031 for the expense of the army for the next fiscal year is as low as it is believed can be relied on. The estimates of bureau officers have been carefully scrutinized and reduced wherever it has been deemed practicable. If, however, the condition of the country should be such by the beginning of the next fiscal year as to admit of greater condensation of troops the appropriation asked for will not be expended. The appropriation estimated for river and harbor improvements and fortifications are submitted separately. Whatever amount Congress may deem proper to appropriate for these purposes will be expended. The recommendation of the General of the army, that appropriations be made for the forts at Boston, Portland, New York, Philadelphia, New Orleans, and San Francisco, if for no other, is concurred in. I also ask your special attention to the recommenda-

Negro Suffrage.

What pliant fellows the leaders of the Democratic party are. One day they oppose a measure with all the power of money and eloquence, they appeal to the prejudices of the people, they cajole, flatter, plead, expostulate, bribe and as a last resort attempt to coerce their supple tools—the next day, or so soon as they discover that the people cannot be deceived, that the intelligent and loyal people have decided against them, just so soon they change their tactics and principles, and say, "We told you so, we were right all the time." What consummate hypocrites! Will the people never learn to understand, the motives and the actions of these men?

Every person knows that Hon. George W. Woodward is one of the leaders of the Democratic party He is now a member of Congress from the XII District. He is worshipped by the smaller lights; yet this same Judge Woodward has been to Florida and made a speech—a speech in which he endorsed Negro Suffrage. In response to a sentiment complimentary of himself, he said:

"The Legislature [of Pennsylvania] "ratified negro suffrage before the "voice of the people could be heard on "the question. I have said if the "people of Pennsylvania would vote in "favor of the measure I would not ob"ject. This year it was substantially "decided—we were defeated. I do "not believe that they voted intelli"gently on the subject; yet I believe it "was ratified, and I shall say nothing "more against it. I am willing the "negro should vote. The colored peo"ple of my town respect no one more "than they do me, yet I am not a Re"publican."

The above extract is copied from the Florida Union of the 25th ult. Judge Woodward in favor of negro suffrage! Hear him, "I am willing the Negro should vote." What have the honest masses of the Democratic party to say now? Do you not see how pliant your leaders are? How they first attempt to deceive and cheat the people; but failing in this, how like a whipped spaniel they cringe at the feet of power whether it be black or white and exclaim, "I am willing that the negro should vote" and "The colored people of my town respect no one more than they do me, yet I am not a Republican." What a slander upon the colored people of his town is the first part of that sentence! And we thank God that Judge Woodward is not a Republican. No Republican ever wanted Pennsylvania to secede and go with the South. Woodward did. The colored people of his town respect him! If this be true, it is not saying much for the intelligence of the colored people of Woodward's town—thats all.

Work and Legislation.

Congress assembled on the 6th inst. The members were at their posts, and from the way they have taken hold of matters, we look for earnest work, and good wholesome legislation. The Legislatures of Tennessee, Kentucky, California, Alabama, North Carolina, are in session, and those of Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, will assemble in January. The Legislature of Nebraska is to be called in special session, and the Legislature of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas wait on the act of reconstruction.

Altogether, we may expect to have twenty-seven law making bodies at full work a month hence, besides a Constitutional Convention in Illinois, and one about to be elected in Tennessee. The liberties of the people are safe, and the Fifteenth Amendment a fixed fact—thanks to the loyal men of the Nation, and the great Union-loving Republican party.

THE CENSUS.—The draft of the law for taking the census of 1870 has recently been submitted to the Committee on the Census by the sub committee appointed to prepare the bill. The principal characteristics of the law are the establishment of a Census Bureau under the jurisdiction of the Interior Department; the appointment by the President of a Commissioner of the Census, whose term of office shall expire three years from the date of his commission; the appointment by the Secretary of the Interior of one Deputy Commissioner of the Census for each Congressional District. The time proposed for taking the census is the month of June, 1870.

The Astor House Scandal.

Richardson the seducer of McFarland's wife is dead. Before he died or while he was dying, he and Mrs. McFarland were married by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, assisted by, Rev. Dr. Field and the Rev. O. B. Frothingham. Rev. Beecher performed the ceremony and Rev. Frothingham did the praying, or rather disgraced his calling by using the following blasphemous language: "Father we thank Thee for what these two have been to each other, and for what they may yet be." It is a wholesome sign to see the press both secular and religious condemn this whole transaction, this murder, this seduction, this profanation of marriage. It is denounced on all hands as immoral, disgusting and outrageous.

But the public expression, says the N. Y. Observer, is inadequate to convey the least idea of the private grief and shame which that religious mockery of marriage has caused. One of the daily papers publishes whole columns of brief letters from clergymen, from ladies, and others, giving their names and residence, and protesting in the name of Christianity and decency against the outrage. Another daily paper says that Mr. Beecher's people are so indignant that they are determined to call him to account. This, however, is incredible.

From all quarters there comes up one honest, virtuous cry of shame, shame!—and it would be some faint reparation of the injury done if the ministers of religion, whose presence has been the sanctification of that revolting scandal, would put on sackcloth and ashes and confess their wrong.

Each of the clergymen has publicly stated his views of the case, and we are grieved to say not one of them expresses the slightest doubt of the propriety of his conduct, nor makes any concession to the sense of public decorum outraged by their sanction of this demoralizing and illegal transaction. The N. Y. Evening Post, of Monday, says:

"The public scandal caused by the marriage of Richardson to the wife of McFarland is likely to bring up the question of the responsibility of clergymen in such cases. * * * * united to perform the marriage ceremony between Richardson and a woman who is certainly, according to those Scriptures which those preachers uphold, and according to the laws of New York, the wife of another man. There can be no question, we think, on the facts admitted by both sides, that the marriage ceremony thus performed is invalid; that it has not only no moral, but no legal force; that no rights have been gained by it or lost by it. That prominent clergymen should have been misled by those in whom they had confidence to connect themselves with an affair thus scandalous as well as illegal, no doubt annoys them, as it has their friends."

The Commercial Advertiser the Times, the World, the Herald, the Sun, the Express, and the press generally, condemn the marriage ceremony as a public scandal, a disgrace to religion and an offence against social morals. In these sentiments we fully concur, and we trust that before another week the ministers will themselves see it in the same light, and express their regret that they were misled into an act alike repugnant to the laws of God and man.

Omitted Passage from the President's Message.

In the copy of the President's message furnished to the newspapers of this city, says the Phil'a. Press, there was an omission of an important passage. To remedy this omission we republish the paragraph which should have contained the sentences omitted. The part which was left out of the copy as received is enclosed in brackets, thus[ ]:

The subject of tariff and internal taxation will necessarily receive your attention. The revenues of the country are greater than the requirements and may with safety be reduced.—But as the funding of the debt in a four or four and a half per cent loan would reduce annual current expenses largely, thus after funding justifying a greater reduction of taxation than [would now be expedient, I suggest postponement of this question until the next meeting of Congress.

It may be advisable to modify taxation and tariff in instances where unjust or burdensome discriminations are made by the present law, but a general revision of the laws regulating this subject I recommend the postponement of for the present. I also suggest the renewal of the tax on incomes, but at a reduced rate, say of three per cent, and this tax to expire in three years.

With the funding of the national debt, as here suggested, I feel safe in saying that taxes and the revenue from imports] may be reduced safely sixty to eighty millions per annum at once, and may be still further reduced from year to year, as the resources of the country are developed.

IN A NUT SHELL.—An exchange thus disposes of the Richardson McFarland tragedy in New York, in three sentences: "Mr. A. D. Richardson, the brilliant journalist, who was shot by Mr. McFarland in New York, died on Thursday morning of last week. He destroyed the peace of a comparatively happy family by tampering with the affection of the wife and mother, and was murdered by the maddened husband, who to the last doted upon his misguided and heartless wife. That is the whole story in a paragraph, and when Reverends Beecher, Frothingham and Field assist in the marriage of such a woman to such a man, though the latter be on his death-bed, they do more to sap the foundations of public morality than all their preaching to maintain it."

GLORIOUS.—The Republicans have carried the elections in Mississippi and Texas. For a few days it was thought the Conservatives or rebels had carried Texas, but now we have the glorious news that Davis, the Republican is elected Governor, the Legislature is Republican and all the members of Congress, (except one perhaps) are Republicans. Alas! for Democracy and treason. "The way of the transgressor," &c.

Free Schools and an Open Bible.

The action of the Cincinnati Board of Education in excluding the Bible from the public schools, and the attending discussions, have become matters of such importance that as a faithful chronicler of passing events we cannot pass them by. The action of the Board is thus stated by the daily Press:

"The Cincinnati Board of Education has decided, by a vote of twenty-one to fifteen, to exclude from the public schools not only the Bible, but also all religious books, and the singing of religious songs. Of the votes in favor of excluding the Bible, there were: Protestants, three; Catholics, ten; free-thinkers, eight."

This action at once raised a cry of alarm, and roused a spirit of resistance. Protestants at once charged that it was not only an attack upon the Bible, but also upon our American system of free schools. The Catholics promptly and frankly acknowledged the charge and proceeded to defend their action.

The Tablet of New York City.—the highest secular authority of the hierarchy of Rome in America.—says bluntly, that permitting the Bible to be excluded, will not modify the antipathy of the church to our mode of secular education. Not only is the church opposed, it avers, to the Protestant Bible being used in the schools, but if that translation were supplanted by the Douay Bible, their hostility would not be cooled. No, not if Catholic lessons from the Popish Bible were chosen, and those alone, with commentaries by the most learned theologians of the Catholic Church, were made the only christian education in our schools, the Catholics would yet oppose the continuance of the schools with a determination which nothing but their total suppression could, or can, under any circumstances, weaken or allay.

The Roman Catholic Telegraph, remarking upon the successes gained in the Cincinnati Board of Education, says:

"It was a blind worship of expediency to sustain a school system that tramples upon the rights of Catholics. The blindness has driven these defenders of the common schools to a second defeat, which, by a skillful manœuvre, they imagined they had escaped. The first chapter in this school controversey is now closed; it ends with the triumph of the law. The second chapter will open with agitation against the law itself in the name of Justice and the right that both Protestants and Catholics have to positive religious instruction in seperate schools. If the school law be modified to secure denominational education for all, Catholics will cheerfully pay their portion of the school fund. If this wise amendment cannot be made, taxation for school purposes must cease. Now that the Bible has been excluded from the schools, if the professed Protestants have been sincere in all they have said in its favor they must agree with the Catholics in the second issue of this question. Consistency will make them our friends in the future."

The Freeman's Journal, their mouthpiece in New York city, says:

"If the Catholic translation of the Books of Holy Writ, which is to be found in the homes of all our better educated Catholics, were to be dissected by the ablest Catholic theologian in the land, and merely lessons to be taken from it—such as Catholic mothers read to their children; and with all the notes and comments, in the popular edition, and others added, with the highest Catholic endorsement: and if these admirable Bible lessons, and these alone, were to be ruled as to be read in all the public schools this would not diminish in any substantial degree, the objection we Catholics have to letting Catholic children attend the public schools."

Such evidence at this must convince all unprejudiced minds that the movement is a preconcerted and systematic one. In Cincinnati the work is in its first stage, in New York City it has advanced to the second. There they have succeeded in getting $214,928,40 appropriated to sectarian schools and of this they have obtained the appropriation of $171,630,40 to Catholic schools. It will be remembered that a few years ago the Pope in his encyclical letter not only condemned our free schools, but our free government. All these things point to a systematic, though insidious warfare against not only an open Bible, but against free schools and free institutions. We cannot believe that the more liberal and intelligent Catholics of our own and other communities approve of these proceedings. On the contrary we belive that every one who loves our free institutions, be he Protestant, Catholic or even a free thinker, will and must unequivocally condemn every movement that looks to the destruction of our free schools or in any way attacks our institution. It is true that Henry Ward Beecher, Horace Greeley and the editor of the Independent have declared themselves ready to yield this first position, if the Catholics will compromise there and cease their attacks upon the free schools, but they are contemptuously told that the schools are the main object of attack and that they will make no compromise. In all charity, kindness, and christian love and forebearance we would come to the discussion of this question. At the same time we would most positively and distinctly declare that we cannot for one moment think of surrendering either our open Bible or our Free Schools. There is no one of ordinary intelligence, not even the merest tyro in history, but knows that to an open Bible, and that the Protestant Bible, the world is indebted for all of either Civil or Religious liberty that it today enjoys. Fore-warned is fore-armed. The friends of our free institutions are here plainly and clearly notified that the foundations of our civil and religious liberties are deliberately attacked with a view to their ultimate destruction. Let it be as distinctly announced that we regard an open Bible and Free Schools as constituting the chief bulwarks of our liberties, that upon them, without regard to church or party, we plant our standard determined to defend them to the uttermost against all assailants.—Bedford Inquirer.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

The State Treasury—Voice of the Republican Press of Pennsylvania.

The Erie Western Pennsylvanian, edited by B. F. H. Lynn, Esq., in last week's issue, gives its views on the State Treasurer question as follows:

"The leading question in this connection with the organization of the Legislature, is the selection of a State Treasurer. * * * * * *

There are two choices with which to fight the ring. One is Gen. Irwin, a former State Treasurer, against whom not a suspicion of dishonesty was ever entertained—and George F. Huff.—The latter gentlemen is a resident of Greensburg, a partner in the firm of Wm. L. Loyd, bankers at Altoona, and one of the banking firm of Loyd & Huff, at Greensburg. He is an honest, high-minded, practical gentleman, against whom not an objection can be raised. But the friends of Gen. Irwin are very numerous and determined, and the only question with them is, can enough virtue be found in the legislature to sustain an honorable gentleman in preference to the tool of a clique, or ring, a damnable swindle on the Commonwealth? We trust, for the credit of Pennsylvania, that this miserable clan of sharpers, who want the Treasury, with all the profits accruing from its possession when dishonestly used, will for once meet with such a rebuke as will show to them that Pennsylvania does not exist as a gambling machine, and that the members of the Legislature have not all concluded that money paid to them in hand is worth more than honor."

The Altoona Tribune, of last week, referring to the nomination of George F. Huff, Esq., for State Treasurer, says:

"If ability, integrity, honesty and youthful energy, were to be the winning cards with our Legislative Solons, George's election would be a foregone conclusion, and the tax payers would reap the benefits of having the State Treasury wisely and economically administered."

The Washington Reporter says:

"A writer in the Pittsburg Commercial presents the name of Hon. G. F. Huff, of Greensburg, as a candidate for State Treasurer, and urges his election on the ground of his eminent fitness and honesty. We don't know Mr. Huff, and all that the Commercial correspondent says about him may be perfectly true, but we have a candidate in this district whose character for fitness and honesty stands quite as high as that of any man in the State, and who is, moreover, widely known and popular. If the West wants to present a candidate of undoubted fitness and unimpeachable character, Gen. Irwin, of Beaver, is emphatically the man. We would say nothing in disparagement of any others who may aspire to the position, but if strong claims and eminent worth are to be considered, Gen. Irwin should be the successful candidate."

The Lancaster Express gives credit to whom it is due, in the following editorial:

"The Examiner re-echoes the Harrisburg Telegraph in glorifying Treasurer Mackey with 'especial praise' for having secured $407,000 of taxes from the corporation known as the Credit Mobelier. There is just about as much truth in this as there was in the friends of Mackey claiming for that official the credit justly due to Senator Billingfelt for originating and advocating the amendment applying the surplus in the Treasury towards paying off a portion of the State debt, thereby saving the interest on the same. In the case of the 'Credit Mobilier,' if we are correctly informed, the credit for hunting the amount of taxes due the State, and fixing the responsibility of the same, is due to Louis W. Hall, Esq., the law partner of Mr. Jordan, Secretary of the State, and not to Mr. Mackey.—This persistent attempt of the organs of the Treasury ring to give Mackey the credit due to others, affords a striking illustration of the weakness of their candidate, and the desperate character of their cause."

The Lancaster Father Abraham of last week says:

"Two or three weeks ago, the 'Hon.' M. S. Quay, editor of the Beaver Radical, openly and defiantly boasted of his purpose and ability to 'put through' his slate, and that he would defeat any candidate for Speaker of the House who was not openly and squarely for his 'set up,' and his candidate for State Treasurer. But, somebody has since given him some wholesome counsel, and induced him to 'haul in his horns,' by denying that he was engaged in any 'set up' or slate 'making,' but that he only meant to express his preference for his candidate for State Treasurer, of course, for the good of the State, and because no money has ever been used to further his (the Treasurer's) interests. Among the members of the Legislature elect, are honorable, high minded and true men, who are not quite ready to be 'run' and owned by Mr. Quay, or any other man or set of men. Other members of the ring doubtless felt the necessity of keeping their very indiscreet organ grinding within proper bounds. They evidently see for themselves that the brag game won't win."

The Bloomsburg Republican refers to the "power behind the throne," as follows:

"Mr. Quay, editor of the Beaver Radical, assumes to be the one who directs the destinies of the Republican party of this State. With the utmost assurance he publicly declares, long before the assembling of the Legislature, who will be elected to the various positions in the gift of that once honorable body, and even goes so far as to threaten those who oppose his slate, with ruin. We know nothing of his qualifications other than that the Radical is very well edited, but certainly it is not proper that any one man or clique of men should warp the interest of so great a party. The time has come when it should not be that the people elect men to represent them who instead follow the dictation of professional politicians."

The Butler Citizen, of last week says:

"The Republican party has been promised retrenchment and they now demand it. As a first step the party demands that the printing of the Legislative Record, a useless expenditure, be abolished. In addition to the saving of the price paid for printing it, the Legislature can dispense with at least half a dozen pasters and folders, and also save hundreds of dollars in postage. Too many subordinates are employed as hangers on around the Legislature, and too many idlers either want these positions for themselves or friends. We ask the press to speak out on these questions before the Legislature meets. The people have been promised retrenchment, and they expect it. They demand retrenchment, and they will have it."

Alluding to the reported division of the spoils between the Harrisburg Patriot and the Telegraph, in the printing of the Legislative Record, the Ebensburg Alleghenian says:

"But who or how many have a finger in the pie, makes little difference. If a good thing be made off the State, we have no objection whether the money go into one pocket or several. But we insist that this good thing be cut off. The Record is a swindle on tax payers. It is of no earthly use. No one reads it. No one appreciates it except its printers—and the barbers."

BEST CABINET ORGANS

AT LOWEST PRICES

That the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet and Merropolitan Organs are the Best in the World is proved by the almost unanimous opinion of professional musicians, by the award to them of Seventy-Five Gold and Silver Medals or other highest premiums, at principal industrial competitions within a few years, including the Medal at the Paris Exposition, and by a sale very much greater than that of any similar instruments.—This company manufacture Only First-class Instruments, and will not make "cheap organs" at any price, or suffer an inferior instrument to bear their name. Having greatly increased their facilities for manufacture, by the introduction of new machinery and otherwise, they are now making BETTER ORGANS than Ever Before, at increased economy in cost, which, in accordance with their fixed policy of selling always at least remunerative profit, they are now offering at PRICES OF INFERIOR WORK, FOUR Octave Organs, Plain Walnut Case, $50. Five Octave Organs, Double Reed, Solid Walnut Case, carved and paneled, with FIVE STOPS (Viola, Diapason, Melodia, Flute, Tremulant), $125. Other styles in proportion.

Circulars, with full particulars, including accurate drawings of the different styles of organs, and much information which will be of service to every purchaser of an organ, will be sent free, and postage paid, to any one desiring them.

BISHOP ST., BELLEFONTE, PA.

The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Bellefonte—Centre, Clinton and Clearfield counties in general—that they have just opened their New Drug Store for the accommodation of the public, and they hereby extend a cordial invitation to all who may be in need and wish to obtain Fresh, PURE AND GENUINE MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, DRUGS & all such articles as are kept in a FIRST CLASS DRUG STORE, lately selected with great care in the cities of N. We would merely say here that our SELECTION & ASSORTMENT

JOB WORK.—Posters, Circulars, Bill Heads, Cards, Paper Books, Job Work of all kinds, neatly executed at the REPUBLICAN OFFICE, at reasonable rates.

SAVE MONEY.—If you want posters, circulars, bill heads, cards, paper books, first-class job work, plain or fancy, call at the REPUBLICAN office. All work done at Philadelphia prices.

Fifteen persons will expiate the crime of murder, on the gallows, in this country, during the present month; one every other day.

THE attention of the Town Council is directed to the obstruction in Spring creek, just below the High street bridge. Not a "speckled beauty" will pop up the stream while it is suffered to remain.

PUT 'EM OUT:—Our town is again invaded by a pack of disorganized, painted vagabonds, calling themselves "Barnum's—something," and are playing to a "select few" who are willing to be fleeced of their "loose change." Such institutions should be discouraged by every class of people, and they would soon cease to annoy us.

WE would call the particular attention of our readers to the advertisement of the American Knitting Machine Co. They offer a splendid opportunity to almost all classes to make money; particularly farmers, who can get a great deal more for their wool by having one of these machines in the house, and knitting their wool into stockings, &c.

THEY COME.—Subscriptions to the REPUBLICAN. From all parts of the country, they come. From the East, North, West and South, they come. Every letter is full of encomiums of our paper, and good wishes for the Editors. They all tell us to continue in the good work, until Centre county is redeemed from Democratic misrule, and the people saved from the blighting, withering curse of "Rings" and "Cliques." Have no fears, gentlemen, our work for the next year is all laid out.

HEARTH AND HOME.—We have received two numbers of this excellent Journal, devoted to the farm, garden and fireside, published by Fessenglil, Bates & Co., 37 Park Row, New York. Hearth and Home is well printed, on fine, white paper, is brimful of original and selected agricultural matter, which cannot fail to be interesting and profitable to our farmers and housekeepers. We have no hesitancy in recommending it to the people of Centre county. Single copies $4 per annum.

HARDWARE.—It is astonishing how busy J. & J. Harris, and their gentlemanly clerk, H. H. Beuner, are kept, at their splendid hardware store in the Brockerhoff Block, Allegheny street—Busy all the time—filling orders—waiting upon customers, and delivering goods. There was a time when Bellefonte would not support a hardware store. Now, one is not able to supply the demand. J. & J. Harris are enterprising men, and worthy of the public patronage. Go and see them.

CARPENTERS.—It is with pleasure we call the attention of carpenters and all tarchanics, who work in wood, to the advertisement of C. G. Scholl, in another column of the REPUBLICAN. Mr. Scholl, as will be seen, advertises a "Patent Hand Sawmill," that has no equal, and that every carpenter should have. "It is simple in its construction, easily operated, and not liable to get out of order." It is highly recommended, and is, no doubt, a great labor-saving machine.—For farther particulars, see advertisement, or address C. G. Scholl, Box 1344, Williamsport, Pa.

PAINTING OUTSIDE OF BUILDINGS.—The winter months are the best in the year for painting outside of buildings. In Canada, and in many portions of this country, all outside painting is done in the winter. Paint put on at that season of the year will wear much longer, and present a better appearance than if put on at any other time of the year. If put on in the warm season of the year, the heat absorbs the oil in the paint before it penetrates the wood, and the lead soon scales and washes off. If put on in cold weather, the whole dries gradually, and forms a hard coating that no kind of weather affects for a very long time, and leaves a glossy appearance. So says an experienced painter.

DR. WITMOR, of Philadelphia, will be at the Garman Hotel, Bellefonte, on the 16th, 17th and 18th inst., to consult with patients, afflicted of all diseases, and furnish medicines for their cure. See advertisement in another column. Private parlor for ladies.

Doctor Witmor comes to us highly recommended by Professor Gross, of Philadelphia, and other prominent medical men of both city and State, as unsurpassed in his treatment of all diseases The Doctor is a nephew of Mr. Henry Witmor, of Centre Hall, this county, and we, therefore, feel full confidence in recommending him to all who may have occasion to consult him professionally. It is his intention to make monthly visits to Bellefonte.

NO HUMBUG.—We do not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures all diseases of mind, body or estate, and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful paradise, to which heaven itself shall be but a side show, but we do wish to inform you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has cured thousands of cases of Catarrh in its worst forms and stages, and the proprietor will pay $500 for a case of this loathsome disease that he cannot cure. It may be procured by mail for sixty cents, by addressing R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale at most Drug Stores everywhere. dec15 2t.

THE HEALTH OF OUR BOROUGH.—Never, within the recollection of the oldest inhabitants, was the health of our town better than at the present time. The water which we drink, and which is used for culinary purposes, flows into our reservoir from a large spring in the southern part of the borough, and is as pure as it came from the creative hand, and as sparkling as the diamond which its brilliancy so closely represents. The health of the town is seen in the well developed forms of our men and women, in the unequaled physical strength of the former, and the unrivaled beauty of our ladies. Their step is firm and elastic, their complexion indicative of strong vitality, and those of them who are well advanced in life, do not look as though time had left its mark upon them.

Bellefonte has, for many years, been noted for its health, and freedom from epidemics, while other places have suffered periodically from the ravages of the pestilence, our air has been untainted. The beauty of the town, and its surroundings, have also become historic.—We live in the midst of towering hills, canopied by a faultless sky, and invigorated by air that is never burdened by the poison of disease. If sickness troubles us at distant periods, it comes as a vapor, merely, which disappears as rapidly as the mist from the brow of the mountain, leaving the prospect more brilliant, and the landscape more picturesque than before. It can hardly be overlooked that the superior health of our borough is attributable, in a great degree, to the industry and enterprise of our citizens. A people whose minds and bodies are employed in healthful and invigorating exercise, are seldom the victims of physical ailments or mental aberations. Drones can have neither place nor encouragement in Bellefonte. There are few here who do not follow some industrial enterprise. Our men, and women, too, usually earn what they eat and wear. The most wealthy of our citizens are engaged in some thing.—Whether it is the result of long established custom, or an irresistable inclination of their nature, life with them seems to be to labor and to wait. Who have millionaires amongst us, who need never wield a pen, nor carry a pick-ax; and yet they are not ashamed to do either. Every day finds them at their places, doing something for the preservation of their own lives, and the good of others. Their example is worthy of all praise and emulation. They rise in the morning to labor, and retire to rest at night, and their sleep is as sweet and unbroken as that of the man who is obliged to toil for his daily bread.

Idleness, which is alike the bane of health and happiness, has but little margin among our plain, moral and religious people, who obey the divine injunction, and earn their bread by the sweat of their face. Such a people can always rank among the greatest of their worldly enjoyments that of pure, free and unlinterrupted health.

VANITY.—The Watchman of last week, after a great deal of boasting,

"Light as a puff of empty air,"

in regard to the water power attached to that office, says:

"The REPUBLICAN is now the only paper in town that is printed in the old way. But Bishop street always was a kind of a slow coach place. Wake up gentlemen! Keep up with the times. 'Tis long have you already lagged be kind in the wake of improvement and enterprise."

This reminds us, very forcibly, of the Stork which, not contented with his lot, dressed himself in peacock feathers, forsook his old associates, and commenced strutting with a flock of peacocks. The sham, as the story goes, was soon discovered, and Mr. Stork kicked out for his pride. Every feather was picked off him, and there he stood, in his nudity, a poor, silly, brainless, featherless, homely, deformed and justly despised creature, a warning to all vain boasters—to all men who get above their business, for all time to come.

Our devil, who, by-the-way, is a pretty smart boy, and a boy of very good judgment for his years, says that, if the REPUBLICAN is the only paper in town printed in the old way, it is also the only paper that gives its readers good, solid, sensible reading matter in the old way; that does up the local news in the old way; that discusses the political issues of the day, fairly and honorably, in the old way, and never fails to tell the truth in the old way. If we had the opportunity to play "Pincher" and "Rooster" in Harrisburg, for two or three winters, we might, perhaps, be able, as other people, to erect brick buildings, and own printing offices run by water-power, provided, always, that our constituants would not desert us, and refuse to send us back, before we had all the "peacock" feathers we wanted.

As to Bishop street, we can safely say, that, for wealth, enterprise and respectability, it will compare favorably with any street in town. Upon this street is located the residence of Henry Brockerhoff, Esq., the wealthiest man in town. Here, too, is the residence of J. H. McClure, and the extensive saddle and harness manufactory of J. H. McClure & Son, the best in Central Pennsylvania. Keller & Musser's store, filled with the choicest variety of goods; the splendid new drug-store of Zeller & Jarrett; the Cummings House, kept by our enterprising friend, W. J. Hosterman, and kept in good style at that, are all located on Bishop street. The marble front of T. M. Reynolds, and the large, three-story building recently erected by our enterprising friend, Edward Brown, are on Bishop street; and here, too, is to be found the clean and well-supplied meat-market of our clever and go-ahead friend, B. V. Black, where the "Storks" of the Watchman are compelled to come every morning for their daily supply of beef and pork. Talk about Bishop street!—Why, Bellefonte could not exist without Bishop street; and the people, without the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN, published in the old way, would be wholly left to the mercy of the water-power "organ," with its smutty ink-slings, its disloyal doctrines, its light and trashy literature. Remember, ye "water-power" men, that water will not do as a substitute for brains.

RUSH TOWNSHIP PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—We are indebted to Prof. Magee for the data in relation to the schools of Rush township:

The Cold Stream school is taught by H. O. Kline, a young man of fine talents, and superior qualifications as a teacher. Classification as follows:—Alphabet, 5; Spelling, and not reading, 4; 1st Reader, 10; 2nd Reader, 14; 3d Reader, 13; 4th Reader, 15; (the Directors and Teachers have wisely thrown out the 5th Reader;) Written Arithmetic, 33; Mental Arithmetic, 52; (10 of whom are taught orally;) Grammar, 17; Descriptive Geography, 35; History of the U. S., 15; Physical Geography, 7; Algebra, 3; Map drawing, 42; Composition, 15; Writing, 38.—Singing is practiced daily. We imagine that the sweet singers of Israel would find themselves totally eclipsed if they were to visit this school, and here the mellifluous voices of these young singers, under the tuition of their excellent teacher. We shall certainly pay this school a visit ere the expiration of the term. Mr. Kline has commenced a series of daily talks, or lectures on Physiology. Number of pupils, 52; (too many for one school; but Mr. Magee informs us that quite a number of these will soon go to the Loydsville school, which has lately been opened at that place, and taught by Miss. Lucy Barnhart.) In Mr. Kline's school, the teaching is thorough and scientific—the teacher using no text book while hearing recitations. Order, cleanliness and taste prevail. Scholars are respectful to their teacher and behave exceedingly well.

POWELTON GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

This school is taught by Miss. Cynthia E. Lukens. School in flourishing condition, but standard rather low, there being too many small scholars, which, by-the-way, is not the fault of the teacher.

This school was not well classified for want of books; but this want, we are informed, has been supplied, and no doubt the school is now well classed. The Professor says he found a 2nd Reader class of 6, which ought to be in the lower school; 34 Reader, 3; 4th Reader, 12; 5th Reader 8; Written Arithmetic 29; Mental Arithmetic, 29; Grammar, no books; Geography, 23; History, none—no books; Writing, 29; Map Drawing, Phonetic Spelling and Singing will soon be introduced, having been suggested by the Superintendent. Number of pupils, 29.

POWELTON PRIMARY SCHOOL.

This school is taught by Miss. Inez L. Shaw. In this school the Alphabet, 1st and 2nd Readers, Primary, Written and Mental Arithmetic are taught. Singing is not practiced, but will be introduced soon. Exercises in Geography. Here, also, the want of books is felt. Number of pupils, 40. All of the above are interesting schools. The hardy, bright-eyed boys and girls, having, apparently, determined to become as strong and lofty, intellectually, as are the towring pine trees by which they are surrounded.

The Black Bear and Beaver Mills' schools are now closed, being opened only during the summer season.

The Potter's School is not in session this winter; (Mill company forming the school having migrated.) The Directors should, in the opinion of Prof. Magee, take into consideration the propriety of opening a school at Sandy Ridge.

We say, open up as many new school's, all over the county, as possible, and sustain well those already in existence. 'Tis education forms the common mind. Education makes law abiding and useful citizens, and we must say, it is education which swells the ranks of the Republican party, and casts aside the old foggyisms which would drag us down to the errors and prejudices of the dark ages—to the advocacy of human slavery—to the exclusion of the Bible from our schools, and to the advocacy of the Calhoun and State Rights fallacies of the 19th Century.

Let the friends of education everywhere gird on their armor, and prepare to battle the enemies of our free school system, no matter in what form or guise they may appear.

For the Republican.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OF FERGUSON TOWNSHIP.—Number of schools, 15; graded, 2; (at Pine Grove.) Number of male teachers, 7; females, 8. Average age of teachers, 24 years. Of these, one has had no experience, heretofore, in teaching while seven have taught more than five years. Eight have attended a County Normal School. One holds a county profession a certificate.

SWARTZVILLE SCHOOL.

This school is well arranged, and furnished with all needed apparatus—Globe, Arithmetical Blocks, Maps, Zoological Chart, clock, mottoes, pictures, thermometer, writing tables, call-bell, class-register, small, but select library kept for the use of the scholars, &c. It is praiseworthy to know that all these articles (except one set of outline maps) are furnished by, and belong to the teacher. This school is taught by Mr. Isaac Kreider. Number of pupils, 20.

Krumrine school, taught by John A. Weaver. Number of pupils, 35.

Oak Grove school, Miss. Sallie A. Meek, teacher. Number of pupils, 20.

Centre School, Mr. C. B. Hess, teacher. Number of pupils, 37.

Gatesburg School, Miss. Beckie F. Canon, teacher. Number of pupils, 32.

Stuckey School, Miss. Sadie E. Adams, teacher. Number of pupils, 34.

Tadpole School, Henry J. Gates, teacher. Number of pupils, 22.

Baileysville School, Miss. Kate D. Miller, teacher. Number of pupils, 22.

Penn's Furnace School, Miss. J. H. McCormick, teacher, Number of pupils, 32.

Kepler's School, Allen Bartholamew, teacher. Number of pupils, 42.

Glades School, Miss. Angie Gardner, teacher. This school closed—teacher attending musical convention in Huntingdon county.

Pine Grove Grammar School, temporarily closed.

Pine Grove Primary School, Miss. Lizzie Moser, teacher. Number of pupils, 42.

White Hall School, George Homan, teacher. Number of pupils, 26.

Branch School, Miss. [illegible] Moser, teacher. Number of pupils, 28,

The most of the above schools have been open from 3 to 5 weeks, but are not yet full, the children having been kept at home to assist in doing the fall work. Parents should strive to send their children to school during the whole of our short term.

All of the above schools, with the exception of two or three, are in the hands of efficient teachers—are well arranged—have perfect order, (indoors and out,) teaching thorough. Taste and cleanliness prevail; school-rooms decorated with mottoes, evergreens, pictures, &c. To this class, particularly, belong the Swartzville, Oak Grove, Centre, Gatesburg, Branch, Stuckey, Baileyville, Penn's Furnace and Pine Grove Primary. Class-register are used in the Swartzville, Centre, Gatesburg, Baileyville, Penn's Furnace and Branch schools.

The classification is good in the Baileyville and Penn's Furnace schools; can be somewhat improved in the others. The new school house at Penn's Furnace is a good, substantial frame building, and does honor to the Board of Directors who erected it. It presents quite a contrast when compared with some of the poorer class still used in the district. There are still five houses in the district with injurious furniture. When will it be replaced by better? The Directors of Ferguson deserve praise for grading their teachers' salaries according to the grade of their certificates. This is right. Let teachers have something to stimulate them to improve themselves. We would also suggest here that, in employing teachers, those best qualified be placed in control of the more advanced schools.

The attendance at the above schools ranges from 62 to 90 per cent. Number of pupils who have not missed a day this term, ranges from two to ten, in the diffent schools. All the above schools will be supplied with call bells. Singing is practiced in all except the Oak Grove, where it will soon be introduced. Oral instruction is given in Physiology, Map drawing and Phonetic Spelling in nearly all.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Ere we are aware of it, holidays will be upon us, and, dear reader, may we ask, are you prepared for the great occasion? Have you thought of that neat and appropriate little gift you duly owe to "sombody," and where you would be most likely to make a suitable purchase? If you have not, do not delay, but repair, forthwith, to the magnificent drug-store of Messrs. Zeller & Jarrett, on Bishop street, immediately opposite the REPUBLICAN office, where you will be greeted, not only by an endless variety of neat and appropriate holiday presents, but by the winning smiles and bright and intelligent countenances of Will. and Fred., than whom, no better fellows exist. We have not room, we are grieved to say, to mention any of their immense variety, but suffice it to say that, outside the large cities, it is unequaled. Give them a call.

"THE SHOEPPE TRAGEDY, ENTIRE," will be issued at the office of the Carlisle Herald on or about the 24th instant. The book will contain a full account of the entire case, and will be sold at the following rates:

Married.

BECK—GROSS—On the 8th inst., at Garman's Hotel, by S. L. Barr, Esq., Mr. W. Beck, and Miss Sophia G. Gross, both of this county.

STEVENSON—BARBER—On the 25th of Nov., at the residence of the bride's parents, in Williamsport, Pa., by Rev. Wm. Paret, Rector of Christ's Church, Mr. Andrew Stevenson, and Miss Mary E. Barber, formerly of Lock Haven.

RANKIN—LEMBKEY.—On the 8th inst., at the residence of R. Bryson Wilson, by the Rev. W. T. Wylie, Mr. John I. Rankin, and Miss Fannie Lembkey, all of Bellefonte.

Joined in the holy bonds of matrimony—two willing hearts—two willing hands.—We have no doubt both are pleased, and that both did well. Jno. I. Rankin is a young man of great industry and energy, and we are pleased to know that he had the good sense to choose for himself a life-partner who, by education and practice is competent to adorn either kitchen or parlor. May they long live to enjoy the bliss of wedded life, and may they ever remember that,

"Though fools spurn Hymen's gentle powers
We, who improve his golden hours,
By sweet experience know
That marriage, rightly understood,
Gives to the tender and the good
A paradise below."

The Bellefonte Republican.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Dec. 15, '69.

tion of the General commanding the military division of the Pacific for the sale of the Seal Islands, of St. Paul and St. George, Alaska Territory and suggest that it either be complied with, or that legislation be had for the protection of the seal fisheries, from which a revenue should be derived.

The report of the Secretary of War contains a synopsis of the report of the heads of bureaus, of the commanders of military divisions, and of the district of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, and the report of the General of the Army in full. The recommendations therein contained have been well considered, and are submitted for your action. I, however, call special attention to the recommendation of the Chief of Ordnance for the sale of arsenals and lands no longer of use to the government. Also, to the recommendation of the Secretary of War that act of the 3d of March, 1869, prohibiting promotions and appointments in the staff corps of the army be repealed. The extent of country to be garrisoned, and the number of military posts to be occupied are the same with a reduced army as with a large one. The number of staff officers required is more dependent upon the latter than the former condition.

THE NAVY.

The report of the Secretary of the Navy, accompanying this, shows the condition of the Navy when this administration came into office and the changes made since. Strenuous efforts have been made to place as many vessels in commission, or render them fit for service if required, as soon as possible, and to substitute the sail for steam while cruising, thus materially reducing the expenses of the Navy, and adding greatly to its efficiency. Looking to our future I recommend a liberal though not extravagant policy towards this branch of the public service.

THE POSTOFEICE DEPARTMENT.

The report of the Postmaster General furnishes a clear and comprehensive exhibit of the operations of the postal service, and of the financial condition of the Postoffice Department. The ordinary postal revenues for the year ending the 30th of June, 1869, amount to $18,344,510, and the expenditures to $23,689,131, showing an excess of expenditures over receipts of $5,353,620. The excess of expenditures over receipts for the previous year amounted to $6,459,992. The increase of revenue for 1869 over those of 1868, was $2,051,999, and the increase of expenditures was $967,538. The increased revenue in 1869 exceeded the increased revenue in 1868 by $997,336, and the increased expenditures in 1869 was $2,527,570 less than the increased expenditures in 1864, showing by comparison this gratifying feature of improvement: that while the increase of expenditures over the increase of receipts in 1868 was $2,439,535 the increase of receipts over the increase of expenditures in 1869 was $1,084,371. Your attention is respectfully called to the recommendations made by the Postmaster General for authority to change the rate of compensation to the main trunk railroad lines for their services in carrying the mails, for having post routes extended, for reorganizing and increasing the efficiency of the Special agency service, for increase of the mail service on the Pacific, and for establishing mail service under the flag of the Union on the Atlantic, and most especially do I call your attention to his recommendation for a total abolition of the franking privilege. This is an abuse from which no one receives a commensurate advantage. It reduces the receipts for postal service from twenty-five to thirty per cent., and largely increases the services to be performed.

The method by which postage should be paid upon public matter is set forth fully in the report of the Postmaster General.

The report of the Secretary of the Interior shows that the quantity of public lands disposed of during the year ending 30th of June, 1869 was 7,666,152 acres, exceeding that of the preceding year by 1,010,409 acres. Of this amount 2,899,544 acres were sold for cash, and 2,737,365 acres were entered under the homestead laws. The remainder was granted to aid in the construction of works of internal improvement appropriated to the States as stamp land, and located with warrants and scrip. The cash receipts from all sources were $4,472,886, exceeding those of the present year $2,840,140. During the last fiscal year 23,196 nameswere added to the pension rolls! 4,876 dropped therefrom, leaving at its close 187,963. The amount paid to pensioners, including the compensation of disbursing agents was $28,422,884, an increase of $441,192 on that of the previous year. The munificence of Congress has been conspicuously manifested in its legislation for the soldiers and sailors who suffered in the recent struggle to maintain that unity of government which makes us one people. The additions to the pension rolls of each successive year since the conclusion of hostilities result, in a great degree, from the repeated amendments of the act of the 14th July, 1862, which extended its previsions to cases not falling within its original scope, the large outlay which is thus occasioned is further increased by the more liberal allowance bestowed since that date upon those who, in the line of duty, were wholly or permanently disabled. Public opinion has give an emphatic sanction to these measures of Congress, and it will be conceded that no part of our public burden is more cheerfully borne than that which is imposed by this branch of the service. It necessitates for the next fiscal year, in addition to the amount justlychargeable to the naval pension fund, an appropriation of thirty million dollars.

During the year ending 30th of September, 1869, the patent office issued 13,762 patents, and its receipts were $685,389, being $213,926 more than its expenditures. I would respectfully call your attention to the recommendation of the Secretary of Interior for uniting the duties of supervising the education of freedmen with the other duties devolving upon the Commissioner of Education.

If it is the desire of Congress to make the census, which must be taken during the year 1870 more complete and perfect than heretofore, I would suggest early action upon any plan that may be agreed upon. As Congress at the last session appointed a committee to take into consideration such measures as might be deemed proper in reference to the census, and to report a plan, I desist from saying more.

I recommend to your favorable consideration the claims of the Agricultural Bureau for a liberal appropriation. In a country so diversified in climate and soil as ours, and with a population so largely dependent upon agriculture, the benefits that can be conferred by properly fostering this Bureau are incalculable.

INADEQUATE SALARIES.

I desire respectfully to call the attention of Congress to the inadequate salaries of a number of the most important officers of the Government in this message. I will not enumerate them, but will specify only the Justices of the Supreme Court. No change has been made in their salaries for fifteen years. Within that time the labors of the court have largely increased, and the expense of living have at least doubled. During the same, Congress has twice found it necessary to increase largely the compensation of its own members, and the duty which it owes to another department of the Government deserves and will undoubtedly receive its due consideration.

There are many subjects not alluded to in this message which might with propriety be introduced, but I abstain, believing your patriotism and statesmanshipwill suggest the topics of legislation most conducive to the interests of the whole people. On my part, I promise a rigid adherence to the laws and their strict enforcement.

U. S. GRANT.

A Singular Case.

DEATH OF A LADY—REMARKABLE APPEARANCE OF THE CORPSE—FEARS THAT SHE WAS BURRIED ALIVE.

[From the Portland (Mich.) Advertiser.]

About three weeks ago, the wife of Dr. E. P. Fuller, living about 2 miles west of the village, was suddenly taken ill by violent purging and vomiting, while taking in an armful of wood from near the door. The illness was followed by what the doctor called and treated as "spinal meningitis," or inflamation of the spine. She, however, recovered so far that her husband left home on Friday, the 14th, for the north part of Montcalm county, to be absent several days.

Mrs. Fuller's convalescence continued through Friday and Saturday, she retiring to rest at an early hour on Saturday evening, and sleeping until about 11 o'clock, at which time she drank some nervine tea, administered by a sister. At 3 o'clock Sunday morning she arose, and immediately complained of great pain in her back, and fell and instandly expired.

Dr. Fuller was sent for on Sunday morning, and arrived as soon as possible on Tuesday. The corpse did not, however, wear the appearance of death, but rather of one taking rest in sleep. A physician called on Sunday afternoon, and found the lips of the corpse of a healthy color, ears of a bright red, and body still warm, though placed in a room where there was no fire. There did not appear to be any stiffness of the limbs, while the pupil of the eye was full and bright, and the whole countenance wore the appearance of a quiet sleep.

On Monday forenoon two physicians saw the corpse, which still retained its remarkable appearance, and on that afternoon they called into requisition the use of a galvanic battery, which produced some softening and pliability of the muscles. The lips, ears and eyes appeared as before, and as bright as in life. A pressure on the ear would cause the blood to recede, to immediately return on the removal of the pressure. A pressure on the external jugular vein also produced the same result, and almost as quick as in life. On holding the hand near the light there was that transparent pink appearance even to the nails, which, by the paris college of medicine, is pronounced an infallible evidence of the presence of life.

On Wednesday, at 2 P. M., the funeral was held, at which time so strong was the boubt expressed by the people who attended, consequent on the appearance of the corpse, that the proper order was finally issued by a justice of the peace, and about 9 o'clock of the evening of the day of the burial the coffin with its contents was removed to Atchley's hall, which had been prepared for its reception, and where it was attended by physicians, who opened the coffin. But the appearance had changed so materially since the same physicians had seen her on Monday that now there was little doubt that death had occurred.

When exhumation was decided on there was no opportunity to inform Dr. Fuller of what was intended, as he lived two miles distant, and it was thought of pressing importance to lose no time in ascertaining the fact of existence of life. He was, however, notified the next morning of the steps taken, and was present until the final burial on that day, after the physicans of the village and others cognizant of the facts had, by the process of decomposition, become certain of the hopelessness of any further efforts to restore life.

There was a strange and startling scene in a Good Templers' Lodge in Lexington, Ky., the other night John W. Alexander, a young man, was about to be initiated, and as part of the ceremony, was offered a glass of water. He drew back with a shudder and the recollection of the fact that in August last he was severely bitten by a dog flashed with terrible intensity across his mind. The next day he was out, but the memory haunted him and he said to a friend that he would go home and go to bed and die. He went home and to bed, and in spite of drugs and nursing, that horrible malady, hydrophobia, rushed rapidly to its conclusion in death.—Wednesday afternoon he went into his first spasm. Wednesday night he foamed at the mouth and yelped as a dog, and his paroxysms continued and grew in intensity. Strong men held him and powerful anæsthetics were administered. He begged to be shot and prayed for death. Thursday about 2 P. M. he died.

Captin Scott Siddons, of England, called upon General Sherman Friday morning, to convey the official notice that the General had been elected a member of the London Army and Navy Club. General Sherman, in polite terms, expressed his acceptance of the membership.

When you bury animosity, don't set up a stone over its grave.

Sung to the Tune of "Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,

An enterprising notion.

And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It hanged the passengers about,
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of the elegant and substantial Spring and Summer Clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE OVER-SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.

In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity), making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON and EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.

The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability, and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.

Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished upon application at

SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE

Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes. But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a destined to win much favor in the HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,
QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,
FELLING, GATHERING,

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortmet of
